FLORIDA LEADER  THE BEST OF FLORIDA SCHOOLS 2004 and 2005

As the 27th President of Edward Waters College (EWC), I am pleased to know that you are considering Florida's oldest private institution of higher education as the choice to obtain your college degree. We are an accredited educational institution and we feel tremendously excited about our future.

Choosing the college that is right for you is one of the most important decisions you will ever make. Your selection impacts on much more than just the next few years, it affects the rest of your life.

We are pleased to offer you the opportunity through this publication to learn more about EWC. From what you read in this “viewbook” you will discover how the College's attention to your individual needs (e.g., academic, social and spiritual) can be the foundation on which you build a successful life. Furthermore, it is our goal to develop within each student the Double E Principle: Excellence and Ethics. This philosophical concept enhances a student's desire and thirst for knowledge, greater community service and strong adherence to ethical values. The promise I make you today is that I will not only work to make this college excellent. Also, we will work hard to provide opportunities for you to succeed and excel.

I am committed to the belief that all persons should have a continuing opportunity to develop their knowledge and skills. What this means for you as a prospective student is that from the Board of Trustees to administrators, to faculty, to staff, and the person who waters the lawn, we value your personal and unique reasons to become a student at EWC, and we shall do whatever we can to help you achieve your educational goals. You are the reason for our existence.

In closing, I welcome you to join a creative, dynamic and energetic group of young men and women awaiting your arrival at EWC. You will soon discover what most Tigers know already, “What makes Edward Waters College special is its students.” I am confident you will find your own place here, find others with whom you share interests, and acquire new experiences.

Respectfully,

Oswald P. Bronson, Sr., Ph.D.

President

Double E Principle

Financial Aid

Financial Aid provided by the government is usually not enough to cover the cost of tuition; however, this shortage of funds should not deter any student from pursuing higher education at Edward Waters College. Although EWC realizes that the student or their guardian, in the case of a dependent student, is responsible for researching and securing financing for their education, the College's Financial Aid counselors will ease the burden by identifying sources of potential financial assistance. In addition to government funding, Edward Waters College offers financial aid to qualified students in the form of college grant-in-aid (GIA) and private gifts/scholarships. Financial aid eligibility is verified 100% and is awarded on the basis of need (determined by information provided on FAFSA) and availability of funds, as well as academic progress/success, attendance and character. Students must reapply each academic year for financial assistance.

Campus Ministry

The Office of Campus Ministry is a part of the Student Affairs Division and is responsible for ensuring the spiritual nurturing of the campus-wide community of EWC, through weekly chapel services, Bible study, psychological/spiritual counseling, corporate and individual prayer.

In keeping with the College's Quality Enhancement Plan (QEP), special emphasis is placed on freshman students and the development of their religious life, in an effort to empower them as emerging leaders of the church and society. Additionally, emphasis is placed on training all EWC students to live purpose-filled lives with high moral and spiritual values, a commitment to excellence and ethics, and the importance of having a personal conviction to maintain Christian discipline.

WEEKLY CHAPEL

Weekly assembling of the campus-wide community in the Milne Auditorium for inspirational messages, prayer, praise and worship is a primary means of ensuring the spiritual nurturing of the EWC community.

The College recognizes that day-to-day experiences with life's many disappointments and various trials become difficult to deal with, particularly when personal faith, coping mechanisms and social supports are strained or inoperative. Chapel services are designed to assist students with their spiritual growth, collegiate challenges, and moral decisions. Biblically-based messages serve as a means to empower students in discovering the presence and power of the Lord, in addition to elevating their spiritual values and moral consciousness.

This goal is in keeping with EWC's mission to help students to develop a commitment to Christian principles, and a commitment to a life of excellence and ethics.
